PANHellenic POWDERPUFF FOOTBALL FUNDRAISER

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE — On Saturday, October 18th, the Columbia University Panhellenic Council held its first annual Powderpuff Football Fundraiser on Barnard College's Lehman Lawn. The Council is pleased to report that the event raised over $2,300 for the Panhellenic Scholarship Fund, which, by the end of the 2014-2015 academic year, will provide Panhellenic sorority members with financial assistance in paying their semester dues. Over 70 women from all five National Panhellenic Conference chapters on campus participated in a five-match touch football tournament, and members from a variety of other Inter-Greek Council organizations volunteered their services as referees and coaches. In addition, many individuals throughout Columbia's fraternity and sorority community purchased class pinnies in support of the Scholarship Fund. The Panhellenic Council looks forward to watching this exciting new tradition thrive in future years.
