

In the MBL annual report for 1966, published in Vol. 133 of The Biological Bulletin

And, many will remember the corner table at the MBL Mess, presided over for so many years by Ethel and Newton Harvey, where animated conversation accompanied every meal. In a very real sense, Woods Hole was her scientific home ; it was here that her most import