KRAFT GLOBAL FELLOWS PROGRAM, Spring-2019

The Kraft Global Fellows Program is an initiative of the Kraft Family Fund for Inter cultural and Interfaith Awareness and the Office of the University Chaplain. Applications are now being accepted for the March 2019 Kraft Global Fellows research trip to Santiago and the Columbia Global Centers|Chile. The group research project will focus on the religions, cultures and communities of Chile. The project is designed and directed by Jewelnel Davis, University Chaplain and Associate Provost.

Funding for the program is from the Kraft Family Fund for Interfaith and Inter cultural Awareness and the Office of University Chaplain; covered expenses include round trip airfare from NYC-JFK to Chile and return to NYC-JFK and lodging. Students must have a current passport that will not expire before December 1, 2019. Dates of the trip are March 16th to March 23rd, 2019. Students will travel together to and from NYC. No exceptions.

Mission:

- Provide an opportunity for Columbia University students to add a global perspective to their Columbia University academic experience by utilizing the resources of the Columbia Global Centers. Moreover, for this year's program, we encourage the Fellows to explore relevant topics such as multi-faith interconnectivity and issues of diversity in Santiago.
- Enrich the Columbia University community by creating opportunities for students to share their research, their experience, and the resources of the Columbia Global Centers once they return. Must be returning to campus for the Fall semester of academic year 2019-2020.
- Promote interfaith and cross-cultural experience at Columbia University.

Guidelines for Applications:

- Please send a letter detailing your interest in the Kraft Global Fellows Program group research trip, an updated resume, a current list of student activities and leadership roles at Columbia University, an official transcript, a copy of your passport, and two letters of recommendation – at least one from your academic advisor and/or a faculty member. Deadline for submission of these materials is January 29th, 2019 before 5:00pm.

Application Process:

- Please send these materials and any question to Denisse Pineda dp2583@columbia.edu
- Students are required to interview with Chaplain Davis and the KGF advisory group to discuss their interests in this group project. Interviews will be conducted on February 4th through the 7th.
- Only students that have submitted All of the requested materials by January 29th will be considered. No exceptions.
- Only students selected for interviews will be contacted on February 1st.
- No exceptions will be made for new passports or passport renewals.

Requirements:

- Fellows must be currently registered Columbia University undergraduate or graduate students. Students at affiliated institutions cannot be considered for the Kraft Global Fellows Program. Affiliated institutions (e.g. Barnard College, Union Theological Seminar and Teachers College) cannot be considered for the Kraft Global Fellows Program.
- Fellows should anticipate out-of-pocket expenses of approximately $500. This includes personal needs items such as drinking water, hand sanitizers, motion sickness medication and computer travel adapters. Some meals, snacks and social activities will also be considered out-of-pocket expenses. Students must pay for all travel vaccinations and medications they require.
- Students will submit daily 1-2 page reflection papers to Chaplain Davis at chaplain@columbia.edu before 10:00pm beginning March 17th through March 22nd. On March 29th, 2019, each student will submit a 5- 8 final paper (also due before 9:00pm), which will include a description of the trip as well as a comprehensive analysis and reflection on major themes of learning from the experience.
